BENALLA

RURAL CITY

WELCOME

WELCOME TO THE 2019 BENALLA FESTIVAL

Our nine-day festival is a celebration of country living and community spirit.

This year's Benalla Festival is again the result of community collaboration to design events that celebrate and embrace all that is great about our region through the celebration of art, music, history, sport, entertainment, family attractions and more.

On behalf of the Council and the Benalla Festival Advisory Committee, thank you to our major partners, sponsors and Friends of the Festival, community volunteers, school groups and many others who have made it possible.

We look forward to sharing the fun of the Festival with you.

TATONG'S GREAT BIG GARAGE SALE

Tatong Recreation Reserve, Tiger Hill Road, Tatong
Sunday 3 November, 9am - Noon

A treasure trove of more than 30 garage sale sites await you at the foothills of the picturesque Tatong valley. Items range from regular garage sale fare to antiques, old farm wares and hidden treasures – bargains galore. Be entertained by buskers and sample great food and coffee. For stall bookings contact John Knapper on (03) 5766 6268.

Entry: Gold coin donation. Proceeds go towards supporting a local charity or community project.

BENALLA OPEN GARDENS

Saturday 2 November only, 10am - 4pm

Be inspired as you discover five unique gardens that have a distinctive character of their own.

Refreshments, plants, condiments, secondhand gardening books, cards and vases will be available for purchase at specific gardens. Owners will be available to answer gardening questions. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects, Benalla Health, Cooinda and Tomorrow Today Foundation. Children must be supervised by an adult at all times. Strictly, no dogs.

KA'MELLIA GARDEN

79 Faithful Street, Benalla

Saturday 2 November, 10am - 4pm

This property purchased in January 2016 was named 'Ka'mellia' after the plant 'camellia' which the owners love. Many of the foundation plants were given by neighbours and through a call out to the community.

The garden is now established with various bulbs, camellias, golden gleditsias, wisteria, grapevines, climbing roses and fruit trees. Through the use of ground covers, mulch and a watering system, minimal maintenance is required.

Entry: $5. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects and Benalla Health. This garden will feature a display of Tony Levy's metal garden sculpture for sale.

FEATURED EVENT
OPEN
GARDENS

POTS AT STEWART'S

27 Clarke Street, Benalla

Saturday 2 November, 10am - 4pm

This garden features a vast range of plants housed in pots, including bulbs, herbs, grasses, ground coves, shrubs, hellebores, roses, pelargoniums, cannas, ferns, succulents, miniature iris and many more. Some plants in the garden may be for sale – visitors will need to contact the owner.

Entry: $5. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects and Benalla Health. A huge range of plants, secondhand gardening books, cards and vases will be for sale at this garden.

STAFFORD GARDEN

17 Warana Court, Benalla

Saturday 2 November, 10am - 4pm

The front garden has a little Gem Magnolia and a big area which is a cottage garden with ornaments.

Moving through the gates there are camellias, Japanese maples and a Crepe Myrtle, as well as a succulent area with lights around the rock border. The paving area leads to a path under the arch and around it is a circular bed which is a 'pretend pool' with ducks and swans. Come and enjoy.

Entry: $5. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects and Cooina. Morning and afternoon tea/refreshments available for purchase.

REDDING HOUSE GARDEN

9 Mitchell Street, Benalla

Saturday 2 November, 10am - 4pm

Redding House is the oldest surviving residence in Benalla. The Griffins purchased the house in 1988 and in 1994 restoration work began. Eventually a parterre garden was established at the front. With the loss of nine mature Malus ioensis trees and the removal of the clipped Ficus pumila in the courtyard they now enjoy a simple planting of trees, the privacy of clipped ivy hedging and a walled garden at the rear of the property.

Entry: $5. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects and Tomorrow Today Foundation. The P-12 College Waller Street Campus will hold a produce stall of items made from the school's Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Program. Benalla Garden Club is a proud supporter of this educational program.

WARNOCK GARDEN

103 Clarke Street, Benalla

Saturday 2 November, 10am - 4pm

This garden originally consisted of some mature trees. The owners created rose gardens, a water feature, gazebo and added a date palm. From the front there is a meandering stone path with paving slabs leading to the house. There are lots of interesting features. Come and discover them!

Entry: $5. Proceeds to Benalla Garden Club projects and Cooina. Collect some free sunflower and pumpkin seeds courtesy of the Benalla Garden Club.

For further information on any of the gardens contact Heather from the Benalla Garden Club on 5762 5569 or email: benallagardenclub@gmail.com
